CIF Israel International Exchange Program for the year 2015

Dates of the Program: April 12 - April 26 (two weeks)

The program is targeted for social workers and/or other related professionals in education and behavioral sciences. It provides cross-cultural exchange as participants come from different countries, thus providing opportunities for professional development, sharing and learning as well as broadening professional and personal horizons.

The Program includes orientation to the Israeli cultural-social-political-organizational structure as well as introduction to the existing social/human services system.

This year we will be able to offer professional experience in the following fields:

- Physical and occupational rehabilitation;
- Services for the elderly;
- Community work;
- Children and youth at high risk;
- Unemployment.

Participants will be placed four days a week to agencies related to their own specialized field, to observe and experience professional work. During the weekend participants will be able to tour the country on their own if they wish to do so.

The program will take place in Jerusalem, Tel-Aviv area and in the north part of Israel including a visit to a Kibbutz.

Participants should have good English because they will be engaged in discussions with Israeli professionals.

During the Program participants will stay with host families to get acquainted with the Israeli way of life. Please, no smoking requested.

Participants will pay 270 Euro (or equivalent in US Dollars) a contribution to the program costs and will be responsible for their personal luggage and health insurance as well as for overseas travel expenses.

Deadline for applications is December 1st 2014 through the national branch.

Application forms can be found on the web: www.cifinternational.com at the Programs link.
